Movie Show for the Local Red Cross

It has become necessary to replenish the Home Service and Civil Relief Fund of our Carmel Chapter of the Red Cross.

The demand upon this fund, while not excessive, has been continuous. Our only means of increasing it is by the proceeds from lectures, plays and other forms of entertainment, and by direct appeal to the generosity of the public.

The first addition to the fund will be from the proceeds of a moving-picture show to be given Thursday evening, September 2. Through the generosity of the Manzanita Club and the Carmel Hall Association the entire proceeds go the Red Cross.

Critic Writes of Our Art Exhibition

By Jessie Fremont G. Herring

The annual exhibition at the Arts and Crafts club house in Carmel have a national significance most unusual in art colony shows. The motifs were gathered from the farthest point of Cape Cod to Point Lobos and from north to south. The traveler finds reminiscences on every wall and art lovers' suggestions and influences of all the schools of all epochs.

The show is eminently eclectic. The spectator is able to vision at a glance the needs of the past, the present and the future. He feels as it were the verity of the Fourth Dimension. For art to be authentic history of a nation's spirit must not only stand for that nation's evolution but its involution.

There was also a subtle prophecy in this exhibition. Just a hint that the American ideal would be expressed not through the philosophy of the physical perfection of Greece, but in a school of landscape painting. Whence this spirit?

Is it an influence from our hymn, "I love our rocks and rills," or the natural outgrowth of liberty.

Space forbids justice to the various contributors, but among the canvases of verity and psychological power were those of De Neale Morgan, full of the symbolism of tune and color. Mr. Parkhurst's "Rocks and Surf" had a chromatic resiliance which rendered a clear song of the sea and sky. In Miss Curtis' "Church" one felt not only the heights attained by the master-builder Wren, but an ethical adjustment of color suggesting the trinity of antiquity. Charlton Fortune, Phillips Lewis, Mary Ross, Frances Clark and H. A. Alderton were like beautiful barbaric tone poems of primitive people. Mr. Silva's "Garden of Dreams" was a tender musical number gleaned from all the composers. The miniatures by Mrs. Peabody showed a masterful handling, and her "Gloucester Boats" suggests

The Woodland Dancers

Judged by the artistry of the program and the great effort put forth, seats should have been at a premium at the Forest Theatre last Saturday evening, the occasion being the annual appearance of the Woodland Dancers.

This is the fourth year that Miss Jeannette Hongland has put on this character of show, and she is entitled to great credit for having pioneered the way to place dancing among the other arts that have made Carmel famous.

An article, written by a competent critic, concerning the performance and the performers will appear in next week's Pine Cone.

Santa Barbara Lawyer Would Be Congressman

Fred H. Schauer of Santa Barbara, who aspires to the Republican nomination for Congress in this, the Eighth district, visited Carmel several days ago on his first campaigning tour of the district.

Mr. Schauer is a Harding and Coolidge Republican. His platform is that adopted by the Republican National Convention. He believes that America comes first, and the minds of the President and Congress should be centered on solutions of American problems before any others. He would not excuse the United States, he said, from the duties and responsibilities of its position as a world power. But the government should first look after the needs of Americans.

Mr. Schauer was born in Kansas, in 1882, his parents moving to Santa Barbara, in Santa Barbara County, in 1888. He received a public school education and graduated from Occidental College, at Los Angeles, in 1903, and then entered as a student of law in the George Washington University, where for two years he made his own way as a page in Congress and later as Secretary to former Congressman M. J. Daniels. Returning home, he studied law at Leland Stanford University, and then began the practice of his profession at Santa Barbara.

He became at once an active worker in the Republican party, and is now a member of the State Central Committee. He is a fluent speaker, and gives liberally of his time to civic affairs. He is singularly fortunate in having the united support of his own county in his campaign, members of all parties urging his election.
